PIPE ORGAN HISTORIAN

Preserving the History of the King of Instruments

Organ music provides a window through which God enters.
Forces of nature, along with a lack of preventative upkeep, routine care or even regular use, work against the preservation and continued enjoyment of historical instruments. Every pipe organ is unique, reflecting the builder's artistry and the congregation's worship. My goal is to assist in the appreciation, regular enjoyment and preservation of every instrument.
